Annual ArtsKC Awards Luncheon Will

Celebrate the 20th Anniversary of ArtsKC and Honor Six Arts Leaders

Kansas City Metro (February 12, 2019) ArtsKC Regional Arts Council will hold its Annual Awards Luncheon in the Kay Barnes Ballroom at the Kansas City Convention Center on Feb. 28, 2019, from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. This year's theme is "Celebrate!" in honor of the 20th anniversary of ArtsKC.

ArtsKC will recognize six honorees at the luncheon for the significant roles they have played in advancing the mission of ArtsKC and our regional arts community during the last two decades.

"Our honorees exemplify outstanding arts leadership," said Dana Knapp, president and CEO of ArtsKC. "Thanks to their contributions, ArtsKC and the arts ecosystem of our region are thriving."

2019 ArtsKC Awards Luncheon honorees:

- Visionary Award: Joan Israelite. In 1999, Joan became the first CEO of ArtsKC. She advocated for the arts in civic conversations, helped strengthen corporate involvement in the arts and ensured that ArtsKC promoted the arts and invested in local arts nonprofits and artist entrepreneurs.
- Virtuoso Award: Shirley Bush Helzberg. Shirley was the founding board chair of ArtsKC and remains its honorary chair today. She dedicates her time and investment to many philanthropic causes including arts organizations that make our city a cultural destination. Shirley serves on many arts and education boards.
- Pillar Award: Muriel McBrien Kauffman Foundation (MMKF). This foundation has made significant, invaluable investments in ArtsKC and other local arts organizations. The late Mrs. Muriel Irene Kauffman founded MMKF in 1987. Daughter Julia Irene Kauffman currently leads the foundation.
- Advocate Award: Janice Kreamer. Janice spearheaded the founding of ArtsKC and called on Joan Israelite to be its first CEO. Janice is a visionary and a nationally recognized community foundation leader who has advanced national and regional investments in the arts.
- Collaborator Award: Artist INC. This program empowers artists across disciplines with the tools, resources and opportunities they need to succeed as creative entrepreneurs. ArtsKC, Charlotte Street Foundation and the UMKC Innovation Center launched Artist INC as a shared program in 2009 to serve local artists. Mid-America Arts Alliance assumed direction of the program in 2017, expanding its reach to 10 Midwestern communities.
- Pioneer Award: Henry Bloch. As a business leader, arts visionary and notable philanthropist, Mr. Bloch is one of our city's most treasured citizens. He believes in strengthening the connection between businesses and the arts. Mr. Bloch worked with local business leaders to establish the Kansas City chapter of the Business Committee for the Arts (BCA) in 2002, and is a board member emeritus of the National BCA.

Nate Orr, partner at Spencer Fane LLP and Richard Wetzels, partner at Centric, are this year's luncheon co-chairs. Stephen Proski is the event's featured artist. Featured performers are: AY-MusiK, The Living Room Theatre, The Sextet, Calvin Arsenia and the Horn Quartet from the Kansas City Symphony.

About ArtsKC – Regional Arts Council and the event:

ArtsKC is a regional nonprofit arts council that promotes, supports and advocates for the arts for the benefit of our region. We promote the arts for their individual, community and economic benefits. And, we create initiatives, including ArtsKCGo.com, to help drive audience engagement and participation in the arts. We support arts organizations, individual artists and arts programs of every size by awarding competitive grants for missions and projects. We serve as the voice of the arts regionally by building relationships with government officials and advocating for the development of public funding, all in support of the arts as an economic & social driver. The mission of ArtsKC is to unleash the power of the arts. Please visit ArtsKC.org for more information. Visit ArtsKCGo.com, an ArtsKC initiative, for a local arts and cultural events calendar.
