KCMO ARTS & CULTURE IMPACT

Industry Generates Jobs & Income

If the arts & culture industry were a single entity, it would rank as a top private sector employer, hiring artists and performers, but also other staff such as administrators and educators.

Top Private Sector Employers:

Household Income

Local & State Government Revenue

$24.6M

Arts & culture generate millions in government revenue, proving that government funding for the industry is not a "frill," but rather an investment that brings a positive return.

Events Attract Tourists

81% of tourists who attended an arts or cultural event said the primary purpose of their visit was to attend that event.

81%

SOCIAL IMPACT OF NONPROFIT ARTS AND CULTURE

Who we are.

The mission of ArtsKC is simple—to unleash the power of the arts.

We promote the individual, community, social, and economic benefits of the arts. We support artists and arts organizations through expert business and financial resources.

We advocate for the arts through education and awareness, building robust relationships with cross-sector leaders, innovators and officials.

ArtsKC serves a five-county regional area.
Missouri: Clay, Jackson, and Platte
Kansas: Johnson and Wyandotte

COMMUNITIES WHERE ARTS ARE PRESENT HAVE 18% LESS SERIOUS CRIME AND 14% FEWER REPORTS OF ABUSE AND NEGLECT

75%

Reduction in Income Disparity

From 2000–2010, more than 75% of diverse, low-income neighborhoods saw reductions in income disparity that directly correlated to the formation of new arts organizations within that community.

20%

Rise in Property Values

Having a cultural organization in a community has been shown to increase nearby residential property values by up to 20 percent.
